From (Name) Khan Bahadur J. Hussain, Bar-at-Law,

(Designation) Collector of South Kanara.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department,

Madras.

Sir,

The Village Panchayat Court at Shirwa as at present constituted has jurisdiction over five villages viz., Shirwa Pilar, Kuthiar, Kaltur and Padur. This arrangement is found to be very inconvenient as only one village Shirwa, is under the jurisdiction of the District Munsiff, Udipi, while the other four villages are under the District Munsiff Karkal. A neighbouring Court comprises only two villages, Belle and Kattingere, and has very little work. I therefore propose to abolish both the Courts and to constitute two new ones by regrouping the villages, thus eliminating the inconvenience referred to above. I submit two notifications, one for the abolition of the existing Courts and the other showing the revised grouping for the new Courts and request that Government may be pleased to sanction the proposals.

For Collector.
